

Because of the discrimination against Jewish journalists in Nazi Germany, many immigrated to other countries after Hitler came to power in 1933. Some founded German language newspapers abroad. This, however, did not stop the Nazis from continuing to use old stereotypes and misconceptions of the Jews to destroy their reputations. The following cartoon is entitled the “Immigration Press” The translation of the word written on the object held by the man on the right is the word lies.

There are several very typical anti Semitic stereotypes depicted here. Can you name some of these? You can then go to the Web site:

<http://www.calvin.edu/academic/cas/gpa/brenn1.htm> to see if your answers were correct.